Sugar-integrated “Supergelators” Which Can Form Organogels with 0.03–0.05% [g mL⁻¹]

Sugars 1 and 2 were found to form gels with alkane solvents at very low concentration. The TEM pictures show that the gelator network is kept during the partial solvent exchange.